

Col (Retired) Raymond S. Robinson IV served 30 years in the US Airforce. A Command Pilot, he has logged almost 4,700 flying hours in a variety of military aircraft and over 5,000 hours as a commercial airline pilot.

After commanding the 164th Airlift Wing in Memphis, TN, he served as the Director of Operations (A-3) at the Joint Force Headquarters, Tennessee National Guard. He earned his Bachelor's Degree from the United States Air Force Academy and a Master's Degree from the University of Southern California.

Raymond's military awards include Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal, Air Medal and Global War on Terrorism. He has volunteered in numerous community organizations including the Black Aerospace Professionals, Tuskegee Airmen Inc., The American Red Cross Mid-South Chapter, and The Academy @ Shawnee Aviation.

Hired by United Parcel Service in 2000, Raymond dutifully serves as a MD-11 Captain/Operational Experience Instructor. He is the proud father of three wonderful young adults, who are equally involved in school and community programs.
